New Venue and Date for The Mustard Seed's 2nd Annual Seeds Of Hope Gala

Red Deer, AB– The Mustard Seed is changing the date and venue of their second annual Seeds of Hope Gala “Growing Together”. The new event details are as follows:

WHAT: The Mustard Seed's 2nd Annual Seeds of Hope Gala “Growing Together”
WHEN: Saturday, October 26, 2019 | Doors open at 5 pm
WHERE: Cambridge Hotel, 3310 50 Ave, Red Deer, AB

The event will feature a cocktail hour, a delicious gourmet dinner, a silent auction, and a variety of live entertainment throughout the evening, including Canadian stand-up comic Andrew Grose. As The Mustard Seed's most important event of the year, you can help ensure our vulnerable populations living in Red Deer and surrounding cities are supported stay well-nourished all year long. With your generosity, we can:

- Lower or completely eliminate the cost of our school lunches
- Implement Health and Wellness Programming which includes clinical services, resources and case management assistance
- Make and deliver lunches throughout the summer
- Purchase a new kitchen stove with grill

Additionally, this event will be sponsored by Steve's Overstock Transport, Real Country 95.5, and Z 98.9.
